

8

D

FIGHT BEAR! SLEEP IN HORSE CARCASS! EAT BISON LIVER!

What else does LEONARDO DiCAPRIO have to do to win a little gold man?

No 1323
FEB 25, 2016
$27.00 (incl. GST)
978-9810111111
9 637437 981282

#THE REBTIREMENT JOURNEY

(Are we there yet?)

p20

BEEN THERE, DONE AD

ZOE & FANN also had buzzy endorsements!

THAT WAS A VERY EXPENSIVE PROPOSAL... DURING THE FIREWORKS, WHEN RAPUNZEL COMES OUT

p84

evolving Peranakan and Singaporean identities.

Till Apr 3, 10am-7pm; except Fri, 10am-9pm. Admission: $5. 50% discount on Fri, 7pm-9pm. Free for Singaporeans/PRs. Peranakan Museum, 39 Armenian Street. www.peranakanmuseum.org.sg

Lee Kong Chian Natural History Museum

Singapore's first and only permanent natural history exhibition, showcasing 2,000 specimens including near-complete sauropod fossils of three giant dinosaurs. Marvel at the historical collections of plants and animals in the Biodiversity Gallery and the Heritage Gallery, featuring specimens from the original Raffles Museum.

Ongoing, 10am-7pm. Closed Mon, except PH. Lee Kong Chian Natural History Museum, NUS, 2 Conservatory Drive. Tic: $21 adult, $13 child/student/senior citizen; local rates $16, $9 respectively. From Sistic*. www.nus.edu.sg

Asian Civilisations Museum

The collections in the new and refreshed permanent galleries at the museum are now arranged to highlight the connections between Asian cultures through history, rather than by geography or culture. New galleries include The Scholar in Chinese Culture Gallery, Contemporary Project Gallery and Khoo Teck Puat Gallery which houses the Tang Shipwreck Collection.

Daily, Sat-Thur, 10am-7pm, Fri, 10am-9pm. Asian Civilisations Museum, 1 Empress Place. Admission: $8 per person, free for Singaporeans/PRs. www.acm.org.sg

B-Side and Rarities

This art exhibition by Jahan Loh provides a sneak peak into the artist's studio, with a behind-the-scenes look at what goes on in his creative space, where his ideas first incubate and take form.

VISUAL ARTS

(Paint)-ing

With a modus operandi that "screen grabs" subjects that catch the eye, artist Pan Huiting's solo exhibition will see subjects revolving around the gastronomic world through the use of sculptural piles of paint that emerge from the plane of the canvas to sit corporeally on plates.

Till Mar 6, 2pm-8pm; except Sun, noon-5.30pm. Utterly Art Exhibition Space, 20B Mosque Street (Level 3). Free. Call for appointment: 9487-2006. www.facebook.com/utterlyart

Till Mar 2, 10am-10pm. Ion Art Gallery, Level 4. Free.

From Koyasan to Borobudur

This exhibition by Indonesian artist Nasirun and Japanese artist Tanada Koji is a dialogue between the two artists about their profound spiritual experiences and will see Nasirun communicating to the audience using the Javanese shadow puppet, wayang, while Tanada Koji will employ the ancient wood carving technique of ichiboku-zukuri in his sculptures.

Till Feb 28. Tue-Sat, 11am-

7pm; Sun, 11am-6pm. Mizuma Gallery, 22 Lock Road #01-34, Gilman Barracks. Free.

Alive Museum

The South Korean 3D visual-illusion museum features 85 hand-painted works and local-themed exhibits, as well as the museum's collaboration with DreamWorks Animation, featuring the Penguins of Madagascar. Also check out a series of 'Young @ Heart' themed exhibits, based on the fields, forests and flowers in the fairy tale Thumbelina.

Daily, 10am-10pm (last admission 9pm). #03-372 Suntec City Mall (between Towers 3 & 4). Admission: $25 adult, $20 child. alivemuseum.sg

Trick Eye Museum

Undergoing a major revamp, the renowned 3-D museum from South Korea brings in brand new art exhibits and themed zones, along with the debut of the 4D concept for photo-loving visitors.

Daily, 10am-9pm (last admission 8pm). Waterfront at Resorts World Sentosa. Admission: $25 adult, $20 child/senior citizen. www.trickeye.com/singapore

Watch Local: First Short, First Feature

This event will showcase the first short films and feature films of 10 local filmmakers such as Boo Junfeng, Wee Li Lin, and Liao Jiekai, with each night focusing on a different director and highlighting their creative journeys. Post-screening discussions are also held after each session, giving the audience an insight into the various filmmakers' working process. Note: some films are rated M18 and R21.

Till Mar 4, 7.30pm; except Sun, 3pm, Chapel Gallery, Objectifs, 155 Middle Road. Free, entry by donation. Pre-registration at peatix.com/event/143351.

Sentosa Boardwalk Bazaar

Stalls at this bazaar hawk vintage and pre-loved apparel, handcrafted items, and nail art.

Sat, 4pm-11.30pm; Sun, 2pm-9.30pm. Sentosa Boardwalk. Free. Island admissions and car park charges apply. www.sentosa.com.sg/en/whats-on/events/current-events